Dear Friends,

At Virginia Peninsula Foodbank, we believe no one should go hungry. Food is one of our most basic needs and is critical to one’s overall well-being. Yet, nearly 75,000 residents across the greater Virginia Peninsula are food insecure.

During fiscal year 2017, we continued our work to reduce hunger and provide the nourishment needed to help those we serve thrive. With your support, we were able to distribute enough food for almost 10 million meals. That is more than just a number. It represents people fed and lives affected right here in our community. Children went to bed well-fed. Parents did not have to skip meals. Seniors took their medication with food. These were all successes of the past year. However, we know that external factors such as housing costs, childcare, and medical expenses will continue to strain households already struggling to make ends meet. So our work is not yet done.

One of our ongoing goals is to provide the healthiest food options possible to those utilizing our services. We are pleased to report that included in our overall 11.9 million pounds of food distributed is almost 6.3 million pounds in fresh produce, meat, and dairy. That means that over half of the food that we gave out was healthy perishables that are often the first items cut from the shopping lists of struggling families. Our Mobile Food Pantry program is one critical way we make healthy foods accessible to people in food deserts and other areas of high need. Through this program, we distribute substantial amounts of fresh produce purchased with your help.

We are thankful for all our supporters, our volunteers, and our donors who walked alongside us this year. Your partnership is critical as we work to strengthen our community. Without your dedication to fighting hunger, we would not have been able to help so many people. We continue to be grateful.

OVER 11.9 MILLION POUNDS OF FOOD DISTRIBUTED IN FY17

THAT IS THE EQUIVALENT OF OVER 9.9 MILLION MEALS
PARTNER AGENCIES

Distributing 11.9 million pounds of food wouldn’t be possible without the dedication of nearly 175 community partners, also referred to as Foodbank Partner Agencies. Successful collaborations with schools, faith-based organizations, food pantries, shelters, and community centers has, and always will be, the key to accomplishing our mission.

THE IMPORTANCE OF VOLUNTEERS

We believe our volunteers are exceptional—we could not reach nearly as many people without them.

Consistently, they rise to the occasion—whether they are asked to stay a bit longer to accommodate a last-minute need, to sort and pack much-needed food at our facility, to represent the Foodbank at a community event, or to serve those seeking help at distributions across the greater Peninsula. They greet the faces of hunger with their faces of comfort and support.

The joy that comes from their work is apparent—a light that can’t help but shine from within.

Volunteers bring their own unique gifts to share. By doing so, they enrich the lives of our neighbors in need.

To everyone who donated their time and talents to our mission this year—know that you provided hope.

THANK YOU!
